WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

SERAPIA MATAMOROS, et al.,

Plaintiff-Intervenors,

v.

TRANS OCEAN SEAFOODS, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. 15-1563-RAJ

ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiffs-Intervenors Serapia Matamoros Perea, Elena Perea Olea, and Celia Sanchez Perea's Motion for Leave to File Over-Length Brief in Motion for a New Trial. Dkt. # 223. The Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part Plaintiffs-Intervenors' motion.

The Court held a jury trial from March 27 to April 24, 2017. The jury reached a partial verdict. The Court declared a mistrial on those claims as to which the jury could not reach a verdict. Now, Plaintiffs-Intervenors' seek permission to file a Rule 59 motion for a new trial that is eighteen pages longer than the twelve-page limitation set forth under Local Civil Rule 7(e).

Under Local Civil Rule 7(f), motions to file an over-length brief are "disfavored."

1 Plaintiffs-Intervenors contend that eighteen additional pages are necessary because of the 2 length of trial, number of witnesses, the jury's partial verdict, and the complexity of their
3 arguments for a new trial.

4 The Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part Plaintiffs-Intervenors' motion.
5 Dkt. # 223. The Court agrees that additional pages are warranted given the length of trial
6 and number of witnesses, but disagrees with the number of pages requested. Plaintiffs-
7 Intervenors may file a Rule 59 motion that exceeds the twelve-page limit by six pages.
